GALEN T. SHIMODA is founder and principal of Shimoda Law Corp. in Sacramento, where he represents individuals in employment and personal injury cases. Mr. Shimoda specializes in prosecuting individual and class action wage and hour claims for overtime, meal period violations, unpaid commissions and bonuses, minimum wage, and retaliation. He also advises clients regularly on labor and employment issues. Mr. Shimoda has extensive experience with disability/race/gender discrimination and accommodation, sexual harassment, leave law, military rights (USERRA), privacy rights, wrongful termination, and whistleblowing cases. Prior to starting his own practice, Mr. Shimoda practiced employment defense at Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP. Mr. Shimoda received his B.A. and B.S. from the University of Utah and his J.D., with Great Distinction and Order of the Coif, from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law.