Sacramento Employer Advisory Council (SEAC), in close partnership with the EDD and the California Employer Advisory Council (CEAC), provides its members with valuable employment law updates and practical HR guidance for complying with the complex web of federal and state employment laws. SEAC is not only a vital resource for the continuing education needs of its members, but it also assists its members in obtaining the information and assistance they need from the EDD. 'Solid, Essential, Accurate, & Competent' – that's the kind of information members get from SEAC. Join us – we look forward to meeting you.

SEAC Benefits Include:

- Membership discounts for SEAC breakfasts, luncheons and workshops on important topics for Employment Law and HR professionals;
- Continuing education, including HRCI, SHRM and MCLE credits for SEAC presentations;
- Free, interactive webinars on “hot” legal and HR topics, available from the comfort of your home or office;
- Free monthly legal updates with information on new legislation, regulations, and cases affecting California employers;
- Access to an EDD representative at every SEAC function with guidance on EDD services and information;
- SEAC mixers, to network and socialize with fellow members, peers, employment law attorneys and specialists; and
- HR Roundtables, where members can join a variety of HR professionals to discuss and gain insight into the latest issues affecting the HR industry.
